Under the capable leadership of Chairman Ben McGee, Sierra Madre has "brought home the bacon" in a first in its class to its home town. A telephone portraying its contribution to shrinking the size of the entire universe was named "Hello Small World" and consisted of a huge phone which was flowered in 625 square feet of pink cramer chrysanthemums. Seated at the elevated base was Debbie Richter, princess, while other princesses, Pat Simons, Donna Edwards and Suzanne Lopez portrayed the eagerness of the teen-ager in conversation.

Local Kiwanians Have First Meet Of New Year

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club met in its first meeting of the year Tuesday, Jan. 4. Past President Dr. David Kirkpatrick called the Kiwanis Club to order and then turned the gavel and bell over to President Bob Hatfield, who introduced the new officers and directors for 1966.

New officers are: vice president, Hugh Barton; secretary, Henry Nelson, and treasurer, Sam Simpson. The new board of directors will be Dick Dodge, Carl Hobson, Dr. Rudy Kochevar, Bill Lockwood, Dan Monahan, Bill Sullivan, Ben Wrightman and Dr. David Kirkpatrick.

The program for this week was presented by the local Cancer Society. It was a movie and a visiting doctor, who answered questions about our fight on cancer.

Break & Entry Noted Locally

The Headliner Cafe, Sierra Madre experienced a "break and entry" sometime during the night between closing Sunday and opening on Monday morning.

As local police explained, someone pried open the side door, made entry, rifled the cash register and made attempts to open the safe, but were unsuccessful. Nothing else was noted disturbed.

Calif. Concert Artists Series In 29th Year

Its 29th year of sponsoring exceptional musical talents commences Jan. 9, for California Concert Artists Series. The opening concert, featuring soprano Joan Robb and pianist Carl Matthes, begins at 3:30 in the Shakespears Club, 230 S. Los Robles, Pasadena.

Once a celloist, Miss Robb switched to formal vocal studies after entering the University of Redlands. The change was rewarding, for since that time she has won many honors and received much acclaim for her performances in opera and in concert. She soon will appear under the sponsorship

Mormon Scouts To Again Rebuild Mt. Wilson Trail

by BILL WARK

Activity will reign along the Old Mt. Wilson Trail next Saturday morning when some 120 of the famed trail building Mormon scouts and their leaders from the wards of South Gate, Whittier and Fullerton will return once again to repair the damage caused by the late December storms. With them will be a new troop from 938 - Pico Riviera headed by Homer Virgil.

All through the heaviest rains ever recorded in November a handful of volunteers had managed to keep the trail open and in safe condition for hikers. Among

Carol A. Graves Passes Away Sunday, Jan. 2

Carol Anita Graves, age 52, of 198 W. Grand View, Sierra Madre, passed away Sunday, Jan. 2, at the Arcadia Methodist Hospital.

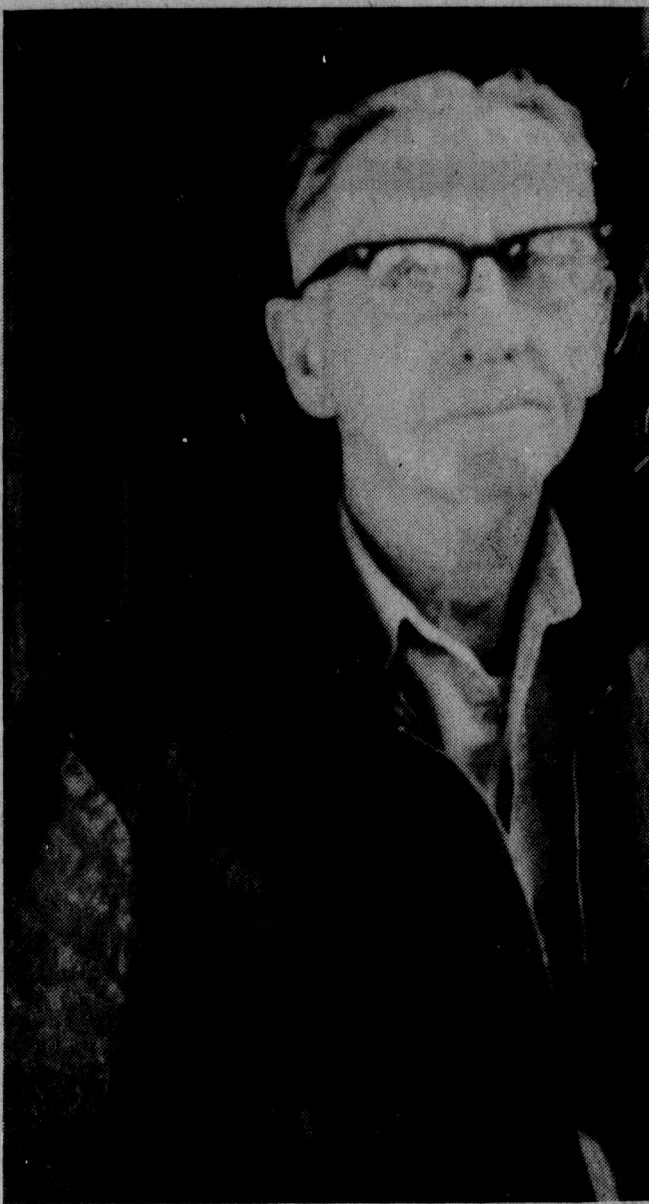

Mrs. Graves was originally from Washington, and had made her home in California for 42 years and in Sierra Madre for 13 years. She is survived by three sons, William J. Graves of Arcadia and Clinton James Graves, both of Sierra Madre; her mother, Mrs. Clara A. Hofer of Highland Park, and a sister, Mrs. Pauline Hoyle of Cal Mesa.

Services were held Tuesday, Jan. 4, at 2 p.m. in the Episcopal Church of the Ascension with the Rev. Harley G. Smith officiating and the final interment in Spokane, Wash. Arrangements were made by Ripple Mortuary in Sierra Madre.

Tells Them What Happened After It Happens

Where Does Our Weather Come From? Ask Charles Askew, He Really Knows

CHARLES ASKEW
... our Weatherman

Ever wonder about a weatherman? We did and made inquiries. Charles Askew (ask Charlie) has been reporting Sierra Madre weather for nine years. He has lived in Sierra Madre for forty-five years. He was born in New York City in 1900 and came to San Francisco in 1905, so he was old enough to remember the famous earthquake, which, however, did no harm to his family. He couldn't describe the feeling of the quake, but says it's an experience you never forget. Lesser shocks have been felt here in Sierra Madre from time to time, as recently as fifteen years ago. Charlie scoffs at the myth that there is such a thing as quake weather, however, whatever people say on a stifling day. No one has ever proved any connection between quake and weather, he maintains.

For thirty years of his residence here the Askew family lived at 23 S. Lima, and for most of that time Charlie operated the Sierra Madre Transfer Co. Those were the days when the big excitement was going to watch the new street cars come into town every hour, and the town's population ran between twenty-two and twenty-four hundred people. Unless, of course, there was a particularly heavy rainfall, in which case a too-swift river carrying rocks big as footballs could sweep down Lima Street, out of Bailey Canyon, undisciplined by even a debris dam, and come terrorizing inches close to invading his house. Today, of course, Lima sports a drain large enough to drive a car through.

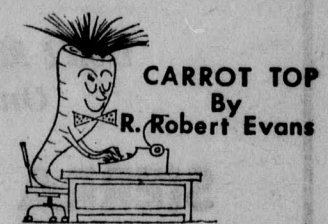

There has actually been that thing called snow in Sierra Madre, though mostly glimpsed as a white frosting which vanished in an hour. One morning, though, years ago, there was a snow of two and a half inches, which stayed most of the day.

Smog is not quite a novelty to long-time residents because they remember "smug," the oily smoke from smudge pots sometimes used against the cold to protect fruit back in the days when lemon and orange groves abounded and the land between Michilinda and Sierra Madre Villa was in vineyards.

Inquiry about the "Santa Ana" winds brought some correctional information. This popular name came because the sandstorms or sandannas go past the Santa Ana River toward the town of the same name. These storms, if you are on the spot, are no joke, incidentally; you can't drive a car in them, and they can actually cut you up a bit.

The Askew girls, Helen

Of course last week's predictions in "Carrot Top" set a few of the populace in a frenzy... they say it just can't be true... but watch it, folks, during 1966... I wouldn't miss the show for the world.

—CT—

I could have added three or four more predictions to those that I listed, but it wouldn't have been fair, because I have the inside track and besides, some of them are secrets which I promised not to divulge until the right time... but, anyway, we are off to the races... and six days of sixty-six are behind us and it does promise to be a dilly. Ho! Ho! and all that kinda spirit.

—CT—

I get quite a kick out of some people... After the column of December 22nd, Henry Nuetzel has been running hither and yon looking for a frog to step on... Barbara knows, that with Henry's luck, if he does find one, what the results would be... she's not worried.

—CT—

Folks, I want to tell you... my hat is off, and I hand all the "blue ribbons" I can find to Ben McGee and his group of volunteers for the Sierra Madre Float in the Tournament of Roses.

—CT—

This was one of the smoothest operations that I ever seen accomplished... and this is just from the outside, because I know Ben had his problems and he completed them all with highest admiration. Thanks, Ben, for your tireless efforts. You did a marvelous job, and if nowhere else... you will certainly receive your reward in the history of time.

—CT—

A scientific journal recently reported that a group of oceanographers had come up with the calculation "that if the earth were entirely flattened, the sea would be two miles deep all over the earth."

—CT—

Reading this, Harold Pangborn, owner of Pangborn Realty, came rushing into the newspaper with a full page advertisement and wanted it in the next edition... The advertisement read:

—CT—

"If any man is caught flattening the earth, report him to the Sheriff's office at once... A whole lot of us here in Sierra Madre can't swim..." Anyway, I'm sure that "Sierra Madre Beautiful" would want to hear about it immediately... they are against such goings on.

—CT—

A suspected thief was picked up in Sierra Madre during the holidays by the local "John Arms." The man, being ushered in to the office of Chief of Police James Bale, the Chief said, before booking the suspect... "Remember, anything you say will be held against you." Whereupon the suspect grinned a wide grin and loudly

60-Page Report Reviewed By Council With Eye To Future Fire Suppression

The City Council met with ex-Fire Chief of Bakersfield Phil C. Pifer and listened in awe, as he summarized a 60-page report on a study and projection of the Sierra Madre Fire Department, made by himself and Ex-National Fire Underwriter Board man R. C. Stange during August of 1965.

The report provided a complete survey and analysis of the Fire Department's physical facilities, general effectiveness as a fire suppression force plus a study of future needs and recommendations.

The standards used for the determination as set forth were those of a schedule of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, now known as the American Insurance Company.

Complete cognizance was taken of the fact that the City of Sierra Madre has grown beyond the status of a purely volunteer protection force and recommendations toward a permanent force of paid firemen be taken.

The Council in whole asked question after question of Mr. Pifer and were given good solid answers as to what should be done in the immediate future.

Engines were determined adequate for the time being but short on pumping capacity to the point of 11 per cent deficiency, and a new replacement of 1000 GPM in the near future was made to bring the capacity up to efficiency.

Most equipment was determined adequate but recommendations for the purchase of hose, was made to bring it up to the standards. Maintenance and upkeep were quite a deficiency with recommendations for a daily and monthly record being kept.

As brought out in the report the last survey was made in June 1952 and showed a deficiency point total of 2962, placing us in a class 6b insurance status, with the department having a deficiency of 990 which placed it in a class 7 position.

The new survey dropped the department to 797 points

Adult Classes on Race Relations

"The Negro in American History," adult education classes, are being offered by the Sierra Madre Methodist Church on Wednesdays.

The Rev. Cornish R. Rogers, pastor Calvary Methodist Church of Los Angeles, is conducting the course. He was born in New York City and received his elementary education in Harlem and the Bronx.

Rev. Rogers has assumed many community and civic responsibilities as an active member of the Crenshaw Coordinating Council, California Parent-Teacher Association, California Community Councils, and the Los Angeles Adult School as instructor.

In the Southern California-Arizona Methodist Conference he serves as a member of the Board of Evangelism, Christian Witness Workcamp, Program Committee, Commission on Worship, All Nations Foundation, and Los Angeles District Cabinet.

The adult education class is sponsored by the commission on social concerns, and is a study on race relations. Class is open to the public, will begin at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday, and will continue for five weeks.

Project Hope January Meeting

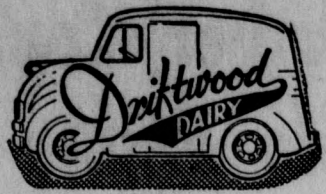

The Pasadena Area Chapter of Project Hope will hold its January meeting Friday morning, the 7th, at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Dickinson Barker, 789 Winston Ave., San Marino.

Dr. Margaret Storkan, dermatologist from Redondo Beach, will tell what she did and learned on her "rotation" to the S.S. Hope while it was serving in Guinea, West Africa.

Plans for the benefit to be given for the Hope Project by the Pasadena Area Chapter will be formulated at a short business meeting.

All women interested in forwarding the Project Hope are cordially invited to attend. Call 796-9947 for reservations.

Stanford Women Meet Jan. 11th

On Tuesday, January 11, Dr. Lorenz Eitner will speak to the combined meeting of the Junior and Senior Divisions of the Stanford Women's Club. The meeting will be at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Chloe Barrett, 1716 Arroyo Drive, South Pasadena.

Dr. Eitner, who is an art historian specializing in the history of nineteenth century painting, came to Stanford in 1963 from the University of Minnesota. As new head of the Art and Architecture Department he has been most active. He has expanded the art facilities and curriculum, directed the remodeling of the Stanford Museum, and has inaugurated such programs as the Artist-in-Residence program and the Art Lecture Series.

He spent the last two quarters of the 1964-65 academic year teaching at the Stanford campus in Stuttgart, Germany.

Newlyweds Are Honeymooning In Mexico City

Honeymooning in Mexico City, Jamaica and New Orleans are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schleibaum, who exchanged wedding vows Monday, Dec. 20, at a 10 a.m. ceremony at the Chapel of Roses in Pasadena. The bride is the former Miss Marian E. Archer of 166 E. Highland, Sierra Madre.

Mrs. June Wilson of Monrovia and Dr. Frank Martinez of San Luis Obispo were wedding attendants.

A wedding luncheon at the Sheraton West Hotel, Los Angeles, followed the marriage rites.

Upon their return, the newlyweds will reside in Alhambra.

Mrs. Schleibaum, a daughter of Mrs. Lillian Archer of Oxnard, formerly of Santa Barbara, and the late Verne B. Archer, is assistant dean of student activities at Citrus College, Azusa-Glendale. She received her bachelor of arts degree at the University of California at Berkeley, and her master of arts degree at California State College, Los Angeles. Teaching positions at Kern Valley High School, San Jacinto High School and Duarte High School preceded her affiliation with the Citrus College faculty two years ago.

The bridegroom, dean of student personnel at Compton College, is a graduate of the University of Redlands. He received his master's degree at the University of Southern California and is enrolled in the doctoral program there.

Palmer, Dammeyer Betrothal Announced At New Year's Open House

CHERYL SUSAN PALMER

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Palmer, 2167 Crescent Drive, Altadena, announced the betrothal of their daughter Cheryl Susan to Donald F. Dammeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edward Dammeyer, of 705 Edgeview Drive, at an open house New Year's Eve.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Pasadena High and attended Pasadena City College. Cheryl's maternal grandparents are Mrs. L. R. Land and the late Mr. L. R. Land. Her paternal grandparents are Mrs. W. D. Palmer and the late Mr. W. D. Palmer.

Mr. Dammeyer, who has grown up here in Sierra Madre, graduated from Pasadena High and Pasadena City College. He will continue his studies at UCLA.

His maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Hoffman Lichnag, came to Sierra Madre in 1918. His paternal grandparents are Mrs. Henry A. Dammeyer of Pasadena and the late Mr. Henry A. Dammeyer.

Rho Chapter Redecorating The 5 Acres Bungalow

"Number 8 Bungalow" has become the major topic of interest to members of Rho Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

"Number 8 bungalow" is the living quarters for eight boys, ages 8 to 11, at Five Acres, which is the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Los Angeles, located in Altadena.

"Number 8 bungalow" has been assigned to Rho to be redecorated. Members have been busy shopping for bedspreads, curtains, lamps, games and all the little things necessary to complete a boy's room. Refinishing furniture and some painting also are in order.

Two artists of the chapter, Mmes. Russell Richardson and Kirby Shaw, will contribute original oil paintings.

Rho is financing this project from funds obtained from their very successful fashion luncheon held earlier in October. Completion date for this project is Jan. 20, 1966.

Mrs. Walter Christiansen is service chairman. On her purchasing committee are Mmes. Richard Michelson and Robert Moritz. Other members contributing their efforts are Mmes. Ron Shoup, Robert Curtis, Robert Stirrett, Gary Hoff, Sandy Lietz, Stan Huntington, Charles Wright and Thomas Bates.

Beta Sigma Phi is a national cultural and social sorority. Rho Chapter was organized in 1932 and is the oldest chapter registered in Pasadena. Now, members are from Sierra Madre, Arcadia, Monrovia, El Monte, Temple City and Pasadena. The chapter has the distinction of being a three-star chapter for four successive years.

Miss Helen Burrus, president of the San Gabriel Valley Council, is a former member of Rho. Mrs. Russell Richardson is Rho Chapter president.

Although Five Acres is the sorority's major service project for the year, the chapter has recently addressed and stuffed 5,000 envelopes for the Junior Blind and also will contribute financially to Cystic Fibrosis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ende Dobay, 175 N. Encinitas Ave. in Monrovia, spent a quiet holiday season but did have a jaunt over to Hollywood to visit friends.

Box Lunch Social By Rho Chapter Beta Sigma Phi

Rho Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will have a "Box Lunch Social" at its first meeting of 1966. The event will take place Jan. 6 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sandra Lietz in Temple City.

Mrs. Robert Moritz, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the social. She has announced that each box lunch should be wrapped or decorated in a manner depicting the theme "Paths to Loveliness Through Music."

The meeting will be presided over by Mrs. Russell Richardson, president.

Mrs. Richard Michelson will give a program entitled "Poetry Into Music," and Mrs. Robert Curtis will present a program on "Absolute Music."

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Thomas Bates.

Jan. 9 Communion Service On 'Sacrament'

"I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people." This promise from Jeremiah, along with many other Bible citations, is part of the communion service on "Sacrament" to be held in Christian Science churches this Sunday, January 9.

Related passages to be read from the denominational textbook includes these lines: "When the human element in him struggled with the divine, our great Teacher said: 'Not my will, but Thine, be done!' — this is, let not the flesh, but the Spirit, be represented in me. This is the new understanding of spiritual Love. It gives all for Christ, or Truth. It blesses its enemies, heals the sick, casts out error, raises the dead from trespasses and sins, and preaches the gospel to the poor, the meek in heart" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy).

You and Your Neighbor

Edith and Stanley Fish, 80 E. Grand View, chose New Year's Day for their big holiday "do" and had a family buffet after the game. Guests, all from Sierra Madre, were: the mother of Stanley, Mrs. Mabel Fish; a neighbor, Mrs. Alice Johnson; cousins of Edith Fish, Randolph Wood, Mr. and Mrs. David Wood (he's our former Mayor), and Mrs. Wood's mother and sister, Mrs. Grace Simonson and Mildred, who are visiting from Oregon.

Mrs. Abbey Alexander and her sister, Mrs. Ruth Sheldon, who live at 220 E. Algeria, have had a pleasantly busy holiday season, accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon's son, Jack. Christmas Eve they visited the Robert Flacich family of Raymond Hill—it was his birthday, too, so in addition to his children, Marilyn, Allen and Caroline, his mother, Mrs. Estama Vlaciach, and his Diane were there. Christmas dinner was at Jack Sheldon's home in San Marino; Sunday after they all went to Lynwood to visit Mrs. Vlaciach family of Raymond and Mrs. Albert Kaiser in Glendale, and Wednesday Mrs. Sheldon entertained at a bridge luncheon for eight at her home.

Wilson PTA Plans Musical Revue

January 21, 22

Wilson Junior High School PTA will present a "first-ever" musical revue, "Nautical But Nice," on January 21 and 22, in the school auditorium.

Junior high parents and parents from the feeder elementary school will perform the original musical numbers written by Deane Bortoff and the dance routines created by Mrs. Carl Unruh and Mrs. Donald Whitworth. A number of skits borrowed from the Eugene Field and Sierra Madre PTA parent show will also be a part of the evening program. A special feature will be the sketch being prepared by members of the faculty under the direction of James Muldoon, Wilson teacher.

Mr. Bortoff is director of the show, assisted by Mr. Muldoon and Mr. Charles Norman, stage supervisor. Mrs. Franklin Williams has designed the sets for the program which will be constructed by stage crew and art students. Mrs. Ralph Rule is show chairman assisted by Mrs. Deane Bortoff and Mrs. Stephen Whitteley. Mrs. Becky Jones and Mrs. Alvin Hackbarth are in charge of tickets.

Proceeds from the show will be used to support the welfare and student activities of the PTA. The show is also being produced as a means of bringing parents from a large area together in a common project and to strengthen relations between PTA, parents, teachers, and school.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Carolyn Olson, William Lockyear In Marriage

MRS. WILLIAM LOCKYEAR
... nee Carolyn Olson

Carolyn Olson and William Lockyear repeated their nuptial vows in an impressive candlelight ceremony at 8 p.m. in the Evangelical Church on Friday, Dec. 18, with the Rev. Paul Larsen and the Rev. Ray McBeth officiating at the wedding.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Olson of 111 Winston Way, Sierra Madre, and the bridegroom, William, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Lockyear of 1385 Tropical, Pasadena.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was lovely in an original Cahill gown of imported French silk chiffon over taffeta, trimmed with hand-made Venese lace. A beautiful white gown was designed with a portrait neckline, fitted empire bodice, long sleeves and a chapel train. Her veil was of illusion net, held in place by a tiara, and she carried a white Bible upon which rested a regal white, yellow-throated orchid with bouvardia and a cascade of white satin ribbon. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of cultured pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Serving as maid of honor was Cheryl Peters, and the bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Marcuson and Mrs. William Meredith, and in keeping with the Christmas season, the attendants were gowned in red formal dresses of velvet. Their headpieces were of red net veil with an arrangement of holly, and they carried white fur muffs with an arrangement of holly. Joanne Marcuson served as flower girl in a red velvet floor length dress and she carried a basket of flowers decorated with holly, and the candlelighters were Donna Olson and Deanne Rogsted, gowned in identical red velvet gowns with white muffs in which were holly arrangements.

Serving as best man was Ronald Larson and the ushers were William Meredith, Thomas Weatherston, Donald Moss and James Cousins. Mrs. Alfred Tennyson sang the lovely selection, "Whither Thou Goest I Will Go," and Paul Olson, an uncle of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Ring."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Olson wore a green and blue ensemble with kelly green and beige accessories, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lockyear, wore a two-piece gold silk dress with gold and brown accessories.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in Memorial Hall of the Evangelical Covenant Church. Assisting at the reception were Sheryl Anderson, Nancy Mangum, Karen Wickstrom and Christine Alvarez.

The honeymoon destination was revealed by the newly-married couple to be Squaw Valley, Calif., and for her traveling costume the bride chose a white suit with black and gold and black accessories.

Upon their return the couple will make their home at 536 W. Elm Street, Inglewood, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Pasadena High School and the Registered Nursing Program of Pasadena City College and has been employed at the Huntington Memorial Hospital.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pasadena High School, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering from U.C.L.A. and is a member of Alpha Gamma Omega and Tau Beta Phi. Women with fine-textured, clear, fresh and pliable skin are the proud possessors of so-called normal skin. This is the skin most of us are born with, but few manage to keep through maturity. With constant care, skin of this nature will hold its beauty until the years rob it of its natural oils.

Regular, but moderate lubrication, moisture and proper daily cleansing are necessary if one is to hold on to nicely balanced normal skin. Even the simple matter of washing demands certain attention . . . water should not be overly hot and use medium lather from a mild soap.

Something else rather demanding is your hair . . . if you want it to be beautiful and becoming . . . for the perfect solution to your hair needs, from a shampoo to a stunning tint, a permanent to a striking hair style, you are assured of expert, proper, beautiful attention at PETITE BEAUTY SALON . . . 185 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Phone EL 5-0841 . . . Open 6 days . . . Thursday evenings by appointment . . . La Cura Facials . . . Parking in rear.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Ladies, here is a tip to pass on to male friends: If lipstick won't wash out of shirt collars or handkerchiefs, soak the stains in milk and then wash.

Scholarships Awarded Students

Scholarships and loans amounting to almost $3,000 were awarded this week to students of California State College at Los Angeles. It was announced by acting President John A. Greenlee. Bulk of the grants were in the form of cash awards from the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Recipients included: Virginia Danaher, 492 Crestvale Dr., Sierra Madre, $175.

stores. It is a money-making project for the Sierra Madre Club, open to the public at nominal fee, and parties may be arranged with card games to follow the luncheon, if so desired. Tickets already are out in the hands of the aforementioned ladies and other club members, reservations may be made with Mrs. Arthur Code, 355-9697.

For club meeting luncheon reservations, be sure to check with Mrs. Robert Sheldon, 355-9123, by Monday evening, Jan. 10.

Woman's Club Now on Regular Schedule

Sierra Madre Woman's Club resumes its regular schedule, following the holiday recess, with the usual second Wednesday of the month, Jan. 12, at 11 a.m. in the Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre.

In the morning, Mrs. L. Evenrud, former veteran affairs chairman for the Verdugo District CFWC, will discuss conditions and needs in that category.

For entertainment after luncheon there will be a talk by Mrs. Marion H. Newkirk on "Let's Upgrade America." Mrs. Newkirk, a dynamic speaker and former president of the Friday Morning Club of Los Angeles, has founded a non-profit organization devoted to a better, brighter, stronger America called "Operation Upgrade."

The club president, Mrs. Roy E. Griffin, will announce current events of importance, both locally and in the District. Mrs. Raub McKim and Mrs. J. C. Dibborn, first and second vice presidents, respectively, are hosting a special occasion dinner for the 19th at 12 noon, to be put on by the Homemakers Club of the Ralphs Grocery chain of

Roller-Kortkamp Engagement

Miss Moreland A. Kortkamp of Houston, Texas, announced her engagement to Dr. A. C. Roller December 19.

Miss Kortkamp is the daughter of Mr. P. C. Kortkamp of Sierra Madre. She is a concert pianist, assistant professor of University of Houston, and pianist with the Houston Symphony.

She received her early training with Mrs. George B. Morgridge of Sierra Madre and Miss Clara Ingham of Monrovia. Later she won a scholarship with Jossel and Rosina Lhevinne at the Juilliard Graduate School in New York City. She has concertized in 48 states, all provinces of Canada, and three tours of Europe.

Dr. A. C. Roller was conductor of the Amarillo Symphony for 14 years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Roller of Cleveland, Oklahoma. He has been for a number of years teaching at the Eastman School of Music, and has conducted extensively.

He is now associate conductor of the Houston Symphony Orchestra and professor at the University of Houston. After conducting the summer symphony series in Houston, they will go to Interlocken National Music Camp in Michigan. They plan to be married during the Easter holidays and will reside in Houston.

SIERRA MADRE NEWS—3
Thursday, Jan. 6, 1966

The Hall Perry's of 118 Laurel Ave. entertained the families of their two married daughters over the holidays, both of Sierra Madre: Mr. and Mrs. William Mulleavy (Nancy) and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blythe (Louise).

MECHANICAL DESIGN ENGINEERS

We're launching a new and exciting venture into numerically controlled special machines, and expanding our aircraft power tool and Winslo-Matic Drill Point Grinder Programs. Our customers are pressing for delivery even before design work has begun.

If you would like to work in a smaller engineering department where talents are readily recognized and appreciated, and if the special opportunities in a smaller rapidly growing company interests you — call us — of course, we expect you to excel in creativity — and experience is important too.

area. Mr. and Mrs. C. Tom Crawford were hosts last week for a true Hawaiian Luau.

The party was held to celebrate the arrival of their friends from Hawaii and in the spirit of true friendship they brought part of the dinner along with them in their suitcases.

But before I get ahead of myself the Crawfords' house guests are Joe and Blossom Kauanui, Emery and Pat Kauanui, and their other son Burl (Kauanui) White. The other island visitors honored for the evening were Bob and Virginia Packard and their daughter Judy who came to the mainland to be with their sons Larry and Bill and their respective wives, Connie and Phyllis, and Larry and Connie's children, Cindy and Steven.

The other guests were Mrs. Laura Bugg, (Virginia's mother), Mr. I. A. Crawford, Mrs. Ida Sandstrom, Joe and Lou Phelps and their son Larry, Jack and Carol Thompson with Jeffrey and Leslie, Ken and Chris Bannister, Bob Crawford and his daughter Karen, Eleanor Lee, Mike Farrell, and Tom and Edna's daughters, Candy and Cathy.

As I mentioned before, the Kauanuis brought part of the menu over in their suitcases. They brought a Kalua Pig, Lomi Lomi Salmon, and Chicken Long Rice. Edna supplemented these dishes with a few tasty dishes from our side of the water.

It was a bright colorful party as all the guests, including the young ones, were attired in native costume. Of course there were island flowers galore, also furnished by the Kauanuis. Matter of fact, on the day I stopped by they were busily making orchid leis with flowers they brought with them to wear to the coronation ball.

The Kauanuis plan to stay on the mainland for about three weeks and the Crawfords have a full schedule planned for them during their stay which has already included the ball, the parade, and the game. The Crawfords have been entertained many times on their visit to the islands by the Kauanuis and are taking a great deal of pleasure in being able to return the compliment.

Now, if I haven't made you all hungry with the two menus I've given you in this column, I have made myself hungry, so if you don't mind, I'll retire my typewriter for the week and go make myself a peanut butter sandwich . . . Ugh.

deficiency and the whole figure dropped 580 points, and should change the insurance classification.

Recommendations for a partially paid department, relocation of the fire station, equipment purchase to be done in the near future showed that it should lower our rating from 6b to 5b which would result in a savings to the policy holders of the area by about 10 per cent or an annual savings, based on the present valuation, or about $123,600 from 10 class to 5b class.

The survey showed that we should have two companies with space provided for a third pumper and living space provided in station two when the third company is required by population increase. It was recommended that two full paid men on each platoon should be provided in the near future.

A complete report and survey on housing, communication, reorganization, training and manpower was contained in the 60-page report.

Relocation of fire stations were thoroughly discussed and the point advantages

A class for expectant mothers will be conducted for San Gabriel Valley residents beginning January 10. The ten-lesson series will be held on Monday from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m., at 2495 E. Mountain St., Pasadena. Registration information may be secured by calling the Extension Training Center: 355-7661. Enrollment is limited.

Instruction for child-bearing involves intellectual, emotional, and physical preparation. The woman accepting the responsibility of self-control, study, and exercise in order to be equipped for her labor and delivery is more apt to be poised and confident. As a result she may have a shorter labor and make a more rapid and complete recovery.

The morning sessions include discussions covering pertinent topics for the mother-to-be plus individual instruction in exercises promoting comfort and fitness during pregnancy, special relaxation and breathing techniques for labor and delivery, and postnatal exercises which aid in the rapid return to the normal nonpregnant state.

The Childbirth Education Program is under the American Institute of Family Relations and includes four evening lectures given by a physician especially designed for the expectant couple.

Santa Anita Church Teachings Begin Sunday

The last four Sundays in January will be devoted to presenting the teachings of The Santa Anita Church, their application in all areas of livingness, and the results if applied. The first of this series is "What The Santa Anita Church Teaches." This is the topic of the lesson-sermon of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister, at 11 a.m. Sunday morning, January 9 at The Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Boulevard, Arcadia. The one worship service at 11 a.m. includes the Family Worship Service.

Children come into the sanctuary and worship with their parents for the first 15 minutes. At the close of the sermonette by Dr. Barnhart, the children leave for their religious training in graded classes for youth from kindergarten through high school.

A ten-week course in the philosophy of Emerson will begin January 12. This course is open to the public. "Emerson, a modern mystic," says Dr. Barnhart, "Not only found his own oneness with the Life but presents principles through which others may find their union with the Universal Forces that free men into his wholeness. Enrollment is now being taken for this tuitionless course. Please call HI 6-8206 for further information."

The first, second and third year accredited courses in Truth Principles and Healing will also begin January 12. Please call the church if you are interested.

Every Thursday morning at 11 o'clock Dr. Barnhart conducts a service for women in Spiritual Therapy. The public is invited. "For spiritual help day or night, call HI 7-6162," says Dr. Barnhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Hanke of Monrovia, with their children, Jane, Janet and Julie, entertained Mrs. Hanke's brother, Owen Bird, and his boys, Tom, Rickey and Stevie, over the holidays. Earlier Fred took his Explorer group of Boy Scouts for a week-end camp-out at Big Bear.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawyer of 415 E. Orange Grove again held Christmas open house for their neighbors, with gracious assistance of their children, Dennis and Linda.

Pulpit Theme Announced

"The Magi's Message" will be the pulpit theme of the Rev. Armin Hesse in the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. The congregation will also celebrate Holy Communion in this service.

The Sunday school and Bible departments will convene at 9:15.

In the Midweek Bible Hour on Wednesday evenings at 7:30, the pastor will continue his talks on "Current Theological Issues in the Lutheran Church." His evening topic will be "Matters of Biblical Interpretation."

The Church Council will meet at 8:30 p.m.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

OPTIMISM PAYS OFF

In last week's column old Hankus mentioned that it would take an optimist to pick the Bruins of UCLA to defeat Michigan State in the Rose Bowl. Old Hankus of course was just such an optimist, tabbing Tommy Prothro's henchmen to win by a 14-10 tally. Sonofagun, missed by two points.

COULD BE 1966 will be a year of successful predicting for the ancient one who also called the LSU upset over Arkansas and the West's win over 7-point favorite East. He picked Missouri to win by four points and they won by two over Florida. On the debit side were predictions that TCU, Nebraska and Texas Tech would be victorious.

MOST OF THE SUPERATIVES about the amazing UCLA upset have been said. The Spartans, called by Jim Murray candidates for the Creatures Who Ate Europe movie, just may have believed their own press notices. Make no mistake about it, the Jolly Green Giants were good. It's just that on January 1, 1966, the Bruins of UCLA were better. CREDIT PROTHRO and his staff with a superb coaching job. They had the Uclans believing they were world beaters, and that day they were. As predicted in this column, Gary Beban is far, far superior to Juday. No wonder the pros overlooked Juday in the draft. He can't pass.

ONE THING FOR SURE, if these two teams were to tangle again next Saturday, Michigan State again would be a heavy favorite.

OVER 150,000 people were treated to a pair of outstanding post-season attractions in the Rose Bowl in the past several weeks. The Henderson - Fullerton clash in the JRB on December 11 was certainly a fitting prelude to the January 1, action.

JR. ROSE BOWL sponsors were hopeful the Texas eleven would provide at least a fair test for the mighty California crew. HCJC provided more than a little excitement and re-stored at least a segment of

Arcadia Board of Realtors Final Meeting of Year

The Arcadia Board of Realtors closed the year with a breakfast at the Flamingo Restaurant for 100 members and guests on Thursday, Dec. 30. Arcadia Rose Queen Pat Hurner and her Princesses were honored guests introduced by Arcadia Councilman George Forman. Each of the girls gave a short biographical sketch and their future plans.

W. H. McIntosh conducted his final meeting as chairman of the Multiple Listing Service. President Paul V. Doleshal also closed his term as president of the local board and introduced incoming President John H. Curtis of Sierra Madre.

Chairman McIntosh presented his committee, Jack Flaaten, Martha Crawford, Norman Reinhardtson and Earl Carlisle, who have steered the Service during 1965. Alice Kaufman recently elected chairman of the Multiple Listing Service, accepted the gavel for 1966.

The door prize of two tickets to the Rose Bowl was awarded Stella Buff.

After seeing the mail this week I have decided to start a Christmas Savings Club right this minute. There's only one small problem, there is nothing left to save.

It's kinda like the housewife that was charging at a grocery store. She said, and I quote, "I can't really afford to shop in this store, but I've never been able to get out of debt with them enough to change."

Heard one woman in the store the other day explaining to her friend that she always took everything she got for Christmas back to the store the next day and the following week went back and reclaimed it all on sale. I guess that's one way to save!

Well, next Christmas I'll be practical, and I hope someone reminds me of my one resolution for '66 along about the end of November.

It seems impossible, but each year the "Group" surpasses itself in giving magnificent and exciting parties. This year the invitations invited the guests for a New Year's Eve in New Orleans. The party was a black tie affair held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hays on Villa Heights Road. The invitations were cleverly done on shocking pink cards with black printing with a gold and pink foil jester heralding you to the affair.

The committee officially consisted of Mrs. Edward Rosic, Mrs. Charles Eldson, Mrs. John Roberts, and Mrs. Robert Meason.

In order to carry out the New Orleans theme they used huge paper mache carnival heads in white and gold with black rushing collars. They were artfully hung all over the down stairs party room along with shocking pink balloons and streamers.

As the guests entered the front door there was one head of a jester elevated on a pole with a huge rushing collar and streamers. The upstairs rooms were also decorated with balloons and streamers all made festive by the prevailing candle lights. The buffet was spread on a table covered with a white cloth over covered with black lace.

To carry out the true touch of New Orleans, the menu was typical. They served Chicken Berry (succulent whole pieces of chicken in a sweet sour sauce with ripe cranberries). The chicken was accompanied by white rice tossed with toasted almonds and parsley. They served a magnolia fruit salad, French bread sticks, tiny little meat balls with mushrooms, fresh pineapple. To add the final touch to the gourmet meal they had beautiful trays of Petite Glaces and strong black coffee. How's that for making you hungry?

Those able to attend the party in addition to the couples already mentioned, were Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cafee, Mrs. Sherri McClaim, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox, Mr. and Mrs. John Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryder, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Boland, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Christianson and Peg's brother who is visiting from the east, Bud Walls, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eley, Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Giangregorio, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldsworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Paxson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rode, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Slavin, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. William Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farmer, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. James Smiths and their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William Harsh.

Unusual parties seem to be the order for the week in the Sierra Madre Villa faith in the ability of out-of-state eleven.

AREA FANS had also come to expect the Big-10 to year in-and year out clobberize the AAUW representative. The Bruins regained a considerable amount of prestige for the off-whipped West coasters. QUICK NEW YEAR'S PREDICTIONS... Gary Beban will be named to the 1966 All-American team as a junior and will be picked by the pros as a future draft pick.

The San Francisco Giants and the Baltimore Orioles will tangle in the World Series... Purdue will face USC in the Rose Bowl... UCLA will regain the national basketball title behind sophomores flashes Alcindor, Allen and Shackleford after losing it to BYU in the current campaign.

A rodeo will be held in the Rose Bowl in the late spring... Native Diver will again be overlooked as "Horse of the Year"... Arnie Palmer will bounce back as the top golfer... Purdue's band will outclass the Trojan horn players just as Michigan State's bandmen did to UCLA.

Old Hankus will be blanked in the daily-double department as usual... Willie Shoemaker will win the riding crown at Santa Anita despite his slow start... Mannie Ycaza and Milo Valenzuela will be right close to the top.

Mike Garrett will be named "rookie-of-the-year" in the AFL and Donny Anderson will shine, possibly as a tight end, for the Green Bay Packers... The long-awaited Trojan trip to the Rose Bowl isn't decided until they nudge the Bruins out of the picture... USC will also add the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame to their victory list.

The Dodgers slip to third place behind the Giants and Reds as Tommy Davis fails to bounce back... Dodger pitching remains excellent but hitting fails to pick up...

The Angels will draw well their first year at Anaheim as Fred Newman paces the California entry to a fifth place finish with 21 victories... Native Diver wins the San Carlos.

The number one post again will fail to win a race over the six and a half furlong grass distance at the big oval... The Lakers win the NBA title by whipping the Royals in the playoffs. Oscar Robertson and his playmates dump the Celtics from the finals... The National Hockey League will commence expansion plans to Los Angeles... Rick Barry of San Francisco will win the NBA "rookie-of-the-year" honors... Bakersfield will represent the West in the 1966 Jr. Rose Bowl, but the crystal ball now starts to cloud up and can't decide between Boise, Cameron, Tyler and Henderson.

All right, already Hankus, just because you tabbed the Bruins to win in the Rose Bowl, let's not get carried away.

Anna Dena Staus Passed Away Thursday, Dec. 30

Mrs. Anna Dena Staus, 89 years of age, of 122 N. Baldwin Ave., Sierra Madre, passed away Thursday, Dec. 30, at the Crestview Lodge after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Staus was originally from Minnesota, but had made her home in California for 41 years and in Sierra Madre for over a year. She is survived by two sons, Woodrow Staus of Temple City and Eugene Staus of South Pasadena, and three sisters.

Services were held Friday, Dec. 31, at 2 p.m. in the Ripple Mortuary Chapel with Mrs. Tessa Knowles as reader. Interment was at Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, with arrangements made by Ripple Mortuary in Sierra Madre.

The four children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forest, of 257 N. Baldwin, Cathy, Julie, Andy and Virginia, got to have a holiday visit with their soldier uncle. Bob's brother Eugene came down for Christmas week on leave from his Army station at San Francisco. Soon now, their parents will be busy beavers again because of the forthcoming production of the Studio Players.

Mormon Scouts To Again Rebuild Trail

not only completed the trail all the way to the top, but also completed the trail to the heliport above Orchard Camp and constructed the two clean rest rooms there. The keeping of the trail is a never ending job and all volunteers are welcome.

There is no doubt that the Old Mt. Wilson Trail has once again become a major attraction to Sierra Madre, last week while working on a slide 186 hikers passed by in a six hour period. Many were family groups and the voices of their children playing by the stream cast a lilt of happiness in the mountain air.

Unspoiled by fire roads and flood control dams that took the beauty away from the once popular Big Santa Anita, the Old Mt. Wilson Trail winds through a sort of a wilderness of its own.

Here the wildlife of the forest abounds and the streams flow free and clear. The area looks much the same as it did when the help of Don Benito Wilson first built the trail over a hundred years ago.

As Russ Leadabrand predicted in his guidebook to the San Gabriel Mountains, the Old Mt. Wilson Trail has now indeed "reclaimed some of its lost glamour."

Lundberg, education. Also attending the State Association meeting will be Alice Kauffman, first vice president, of the Arcadia Board, Fred Griesinger and Mary H. McIntosh, 1966 president of the Women's Council.

New Year For Delta Gamma

Delta Gamma Alumnae from the Pasadena area will begin the new year activities with a dessert meeting on Tuesday, January 11. The 7:30 gathering will be at the San Marino home of Mrs. Joseph W. Lewis Jr., 875 Canterbury Road. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Edwin C. Pyle, Mrs. Matthew Slavin III, Mrs. Gordon R. Hyde, and Mrs. Robert G. Keilholtz.

The evening's program will be presented by a member of the American Cancer Society and will feature its new film entitled "Million Member Club."

Reservations for the meeting are being taken by Mrs. Robert G. Keilholtz, 355-3357.

Calif. Concert Artists of Phi Mu Epsilon, national music sorority.

On this series, Miss Robb has programmed songs by Debussy, Weber, Schubert, Schumann and Rachmaninov.

Mr. Matthes, too, is a much-acclaimed artist, having won accolades in this country and abroad. He has appeared as soloist with Joseph Krips and the San Francisco Symphony, with the Fresno Symphony, and has participated in the Master Classes of Rosina Lhevinne and of Rosalyn Tourecek.

On Jan. 9, Mr. Matthes will perform compositions by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Sschaikovsky and Scriabin.

Subsequent concerts in this series will be: Jan. 16, with Eva Bowman, soprano, and Robert Teusworthe, tenor; and Jan. 23, with Marilyn Mayne, soprano, and Catherine Eros, pianist.

GET THE TRUE FACTS

We pay more on insured savings than the Federal Reserve Bank has authorized banks to pay on passbook savings accounts!

YES, IT IS TRUE—funds at ALTADENA FEDERAL SAVINGS can earn a higher savings return than any bank pays.

IT IS TRUE—the majority of banks are paying 4% per annum on passbook savings accounts—at ALTADENA FEDERAL SAVINGS your savings earn the current annual rate of 4.85% which compounds quarterly to an effective return of 4.94% annually.

IT IS TRUE—there are other types of investments where your money may earn more BUT there are other factors you should protect yourself against, such as high risk or market fluctuations of one type. Another type to guard against is uninsured investments—other facts to consider are limitations and restrictions on your money such as CD time-hold requirements. At ALTADENA FEDERAL your savings account is insured to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation—and for over 30 years ALTADENA FEDERAL SAVINGS has always made savings account money available upon request.

IT IS TRUE—established in 1934 by FEDERAL Charter, ALTADENA FEDERAL SAVINGS has the protective advantages provided by membership in the Federal Home Loan Bank system.

IT IS TRUE—all additions, withdrawals or transfer of your money may be made by mail—postage pre-paid both ways. In opening a new account, the proper procedure is to mail your check made out to ALTADENA FEDERAL SAVINGS and signature cards and passbook will be returned immediately to you by mail. For additional facts telephone 794-1161, and talk, personally, to one of our savings department executives.

An APOTHECARY Weighs & Measures

HELLO, SMALL WORLD!

Congratulations, Sierra Madre, on another, still another FIRST in our class on our float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. Just think—we citizens of Sierra Madre design, finance and build our prize winners too. (Very few, if any cities do this). I have said, and repeated many times, that this spirit of cooperation and oneness make Sierra Madre a wonderful place to live and grow in!

Now that I have expounded about our great outdoors, I want to talk a minute about "Discover the Great Indoors," so here comes the commercial—

We at Hartmans invite you to discover the great INDOORS. There are great picture-taking opportunities within the walls of your own home. Catch the children at play, family parties, hobbies. Snap one, two, three or as many as four flash pictures without having to stop and change flash-bulbs.

Impossible? Not now, because we have the new KODAK INSTAMATIC CAMERAS that use the new FLASHCUBE. Each time you shoot a picture the flashcube turns to bring a new flashbulb into position. These cameras and flashcubes let you take those sequence shots that are so much fun—let you catch the changing expression on a baby's face, expressions that happen too quickly for other flash cameras to get, and—you can make full use of the KODAK INSTAMATIC CAMERA outdoors too. Get one soon, you never know when a great picture is going to happen.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In the interest of objectivity I would like to take issue with some of the points made by "Stifbak" in his letter concerning HELP. First, I cannot recall Stifbak's having had any personal contact with any of the members of HELP, so I must say I stand in awe of his ability to so quickly administer a verdict requiring such a broad scope of psychological knowledge such as, "emotionally immature punks and misfits who call their outfit HELP — and they need it." He is correct on one count, these students do need help — help in determining what their ideas on important issues will be. I have no recollection of the Constitution anywhere stating that students — or anyone, for that matter — should be subjected to only one viewpoint — that one, of course, being the one with the "patriotic seal of approval." These students are only misfits in that they have gagged on and refused to swallow the molasses — sweet ideas that propound the doctrine of "see and hear nothing that might cause an individual to think, and (God forbid) arrive at a decision that is based on knowledge of all facets of an issue."

It seems strangely paradoxical to me that those who claim to be the staunch supporters of the American Dream et al. have fabricated their illusions of such flimsy substance that the free speech guarantee by the first amendment of the Constitution presents a threat. What of your fervent belief in the rugged individualist? When one actually looks on the scene people run in terror screaming "Subversive!"

I think that if Mr. Stifbak took the trouble to talk to any of the students in attendance at the Dorothy Healey meeting he would find that not one clamored for a membership card after hearing her speak. In fact, there were several interested and critical young people who genuinely wanted to ask her salient questions, but unfortunately, due to some of the more vocal advocates of free speech (I believe several of them were members of the White Citizens' Council, replete with "Never" buttons) anyone with a question rather than an insult was lost in the sea of epithets.

Pernaps Mr. Stifbak's mind would be put at ease if he knew that HELP also sponsored a meeting featuring Mr. Bill Templeman of the John Birch Society. There was a difference between Mrs. Healey's and Mr. Templeman's appearances, however. Mr. Templeman spoke before a smaller group comprised mainly of adolescents and was not denied his right to speak by a small group of so-called adults.

Thoroughbred Horse Sale To Be Jan. 9-10

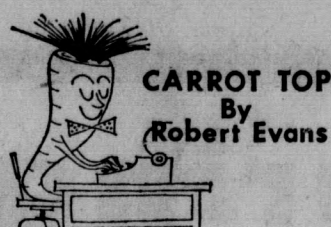

More than 300 head of the pride of the Thoroughbred horse world go on sale Sunday and Monday, January 9-10, at the Los Angeles County Fair grounds in the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association's annual midwinter vendue.

Fasig-Tipton Sales Company will conduct the auction of mixed stock. The event is open to the public.

A new venture for the fairgrounds road course on January 8 and 9 will be the Pomona Grand Prix Pro-Kart races, with more than $6000 offered in purses, highlighted by two 100-lap main events. The speedy little buggies hit speeds of over 100 miles per hour.

A trailer rally for the Kenskill Caravan Club will be held January 14 through 16.

The month's major activities wind up January 23 with the Orange Empire Rabbit Showman's rabbit show.

said two words . . . "Elizabeth Taylor." Now if this is the reward a suspect receives . . . watch out, boys, I'm going on a shoplifting spree . . . yess, sirree . . . immediately.

I'm not ending this column short this week, but rather adding a rather long, serious four paragraphs . . . Do read it carefully and let's not "hit the stricks in '66."

"The open society, in which ordinary people have the power of choice . . . in political, economic and intellectual affairs . . . is a relatively recent development in man's history."

"Most men who have lived on earth have been victims of autocracy. Until the last few hundred years, small power elites or authoritarian rulers dominated every society."

"Today, in much of the world, millions of people live in collective societies where only a small group at the top have the power of choice. The people live with little voice in political, economic or intellectual affairs; they are coerced into silence."

"We, on the other hand, live in a society where the power of choice is widespread . . . the principles lying behind this power of ours . . . reveal the gradual encroachment of human values upon the domain of brute force. They remind us that the range of freedom is broadened only when a people are enlightened, where the shadows of human ignorance are lifted." . . . You and I truly make the world in which we live, I hope, I hope, I hope.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Sierra Madre will conduct a public hearing on Thursday, January 20, 1966, at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, located at 55 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, Sierra Madre, California, to determine and consider the amendment initiated by the City Council for proposed revisions to Section 94102 (a) of the Sierra Madre City Code relating to hillside development.

The proposal to be considered by the Planning Commission involves the following proposed amendment, together with such modifications as may be made thereto:

Section 94102 — Uses Conditional

(a) Subdivisions and re-subdivisions (lot splits) of land, when new lots are created.

Interested persons may attend such hearing and be heard with respect thereto.

Where Does Our Weather Come From?

and Betty Jean, grew up here, married and, as with many of the children of long-time residents, remained. So now there is Mrs. Helen Pennington at 359 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., with her children, Linda and Gwen, who go to PCC, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paterson Jr. at 454 Manzainita, who have three boys, Mike, Pat and Gregory.

How does a weather man report the weather? Not, in this case, with charts and maps and hocus pocus, for Charlie, as he says, "just tells what happened after it happened." No hazard of foolist prophecy for him. Every morning at seven he checks the high and the low and the rainfall over at the City Yards, and reports the figures by short wave radio to Los Angeles for government records. Occasionally a Pasadena or Los Angeles newspaper will call to check old records for some comparison, and from time to time school children, earnest about some assignment, will call on Charlie. The major part of Charlie's work day is spent in the care of water matters. He operates the city water system, such as boosters, pumps and wells; checks and reads water meters, changes them, overhauls, repairs, and, sometimes, is the man who must turn one off for non-payment. Incidentally, Charlie believes our water rates are comparable to surrounding towns.

To report temperature, a regular mercury thermometer is used, with this significant difference: it is so constructed that the mercury stays put at the high and the low, until it is magnetized back to zero, no dedication to midnight checkups is required. The gauge for measuring rainfall is a bucket, like those once used to make ice cream, in which a brass tube like an artillery shell is set, into the top of which goes a funnel. If the rain is so heavy that it overflows the shell, the surplus lands in the bucket and also can be measured.

Is the weather in Sierra Madre any different now?

Square Dances Start Jan. 18

We have many types of wonderful entertainment available today, but it has been proved that participation activities are far more interesting to the majority, as everyone likes to get into the act—so to speak.

Square dancing for adults is one such activity sponsored by the Pasadena Department of Recreation that is taught from first to last and lets everyone enjoy the experience.

You are invited to attend a beginner class at Field School, 3600 Sierra Madre Blvd., Pasadena, starting Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 7:30 p.m. The class will be open for three weeks and Orrin "Pappy" Benedict will be the teacher. A nominal fee charged.

LEGAL NOTICE

Hall, 55 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, Sierra Madre, California, as the time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposed variance to reduce side yard setback to 5 feet from a requirement of 7 1/2 feet for property described as portions of Lots 13 and 14, Piedmont Heights Tract, and further described as 175 West Carter Avenue.

Application may be on file in the office of the Secretary of the Planning Commission. The application alleges that there are special circumstances attached to said property which generally do not apply to other properties in the same district and vicinity; that the granting of a variance as aforesaid will not result in a material damage or prejudice to the public welfare or injurious to persons in the vicinity thereof, in that the proposed variance, if granted, would be subject to such conditions as the Planning Commission may deem necessary to assure that the spirit and purpose of said City Zoning Code will be observed, public welfare and safety secured, and substantial justice done to all parties.

You and Your Neighbor

... During Holiday Season

by Mary-Madeleine Lanphier

Mr. and Mrs. John Gougou, of Carter St. enjoyed out of town guests over the holidays: Mr. and Mrs. Will Hattara, from Phoenix, and Mrs. Agnes MacLoane, from Honolulu. Also a guest was Miss Mary E. McLaughlin of Hollywood, great-aunt of the children, Marie Claire and Andree, who hosted a pinata party for young friends as part of the family's Christmas Day Open House. The children also enjoyed a theater party during vacation at the Carousel Theatre, so they could see the Wizard of Oz. John Gougou is the architect for the new church building for the St. Rita's parish.

Seems like it might be a good idea if someone would organize packing "bees" like the old quilting bees, at the rate people get transferred and move today. Especially, since in many cases the husband must go ahead alone to new job and the search for a new home. The Willard Meschers of 415 Laurel are among the latest to be caught up in the difficulties of progress. Bill is being transferred by Sears to New York City and will have reported there by the first of the year, while Doris, with the children Willard and James, will be busy with house sale negotiations and make-ready here. However, they had a pleasant Christmas, with Mrs. Mescher's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Crapo visiting from Santa Barbara.

Also leaving Sierra Madre are the Robert T. Elliotts of 839 Woodlawn. Bob's work as a psychologist has won him a post with the State of California, and this family will be living and working in Sacramento. Another couple who've been through the move hassle, the Ted Velasquez's, now of La Jolla, very much missed their Sierra Madre friends at Christmas this year, despite piles of cards, although they had a clan reunion with Gina's mother, Mrs. M. M. Lanphier and her brother's family, Stephen and Roberta Riddle, with Karen and Sheryl and the Lanphier twins, Jenny and Stenny, her youngest sisters. The Mac Casons, also formerly of Sierra Madre and now at La Jolla (Ted and Mac are both working on the new University at San Diego) were also nostalgic for old friends, so the two couples got together and did some elaborate reminiscing and Noel toasting of Sierra Madre.

Florence and Sellwyn Myer, 169 S. Baldwin, and their children Anne and Patrick made this a fairly quiet Christmas, understandably, if anyone visited our post office this season. However, quiet is relative. The Myers have had as house guests Mrs. Mary Dell Roberts and her two year old daughter Amy, from Hollywood, and Florence is, of course, swinging into production details for the "Seventeenth Doll," to be presented late in January by the Studio Players.

Complimentary "Distinctioned Guest" tickets to the Rose Bowl game were presented to our 97 year old first Mayor, Charles W. Jones, on behalf of the Sierra Madre Rose Float Association. Report is that no one cheered louder.

Mary and Thomas C. Redman of 72 Hermosa were among those who had a clan gathering over the holidays. Joining in the festivities with their own children Michelle, home from USC; Nancy, Chris and Suzanne, were: Mr. Redman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redman, from Atascadero; Mrs. Redman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Irish, from Del Mar; her sister, Anne Irish, and a friend, Mr. Ray Priddy, both from Arcadia.

The 90-year old father of Mrs. Kay Messersmith, 280 W. Grand View has been proving that our area isn't the only one to produce lasting vigor. Mr. H. H. Flann, who is from Hoyt Lakes, Minnesota, made his first plane trip by jet to visit his daughter and grandsons, Will and James, and relished every moment of the journey. He will spend the winter here.

No matter how glamorous the world at large, it's still true that there's no place like home, etc., so Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Rogers yielded to family pressure and their own longings and managed to get back to Sierra Madre from their six months trip around the world in time to be with their children and their families over Christmas. Their reunion included: son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rogers, of Sierra Madre Villa, with Rita, Carol, Donald and Jimmy; son Dan and his wife and Gary, Danny and Michael, from Corona Del Mar; daughter Mrs. E. J. Miller of Arcadia, with her children, David, now in the Navy; Carl, Tommy, "Benje" and their married daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Rollins of Santa Barbara with 2 year old "Scottie," the Rogers' first great grandchild. The Rogers' journey, which took them to some 30 countries, seemed to keep parallel or a step ahead of world hot-headlines. They were seven days in Saigon, entrusted with strategic war material; they were in Singapore the very day that this city and Malasia separated; and they were in Pakistan just before evacuation of Americans took place. However they also had more peaceful times: a whole month in Portugal, in an apartment in Esterville near Lisbon; a Mediterranean idyll in Marbella, Spain, and a memorable four days in a Japanese home. Their daughter, Mrs. Miller has living with her as a daughter, Miss Miyoko Hattori, who, incidentally, was recently Queen of the International Club at PCC, so it was her parents who were hosts to the Rogers in Japan.

Birth Defects Second Greatest Killer, March of Dimes Survey Discloses

THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION IS CALLING ON THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO JOIN IN A PARTNERSHIP WITH SCIENCE TO ELIMINATE THIS DESTROYER.

Join The New March of Dimes . . .

DURING JANUARY 1966

America's dimes have helped immeasurably to erase the threat of polio, have helped the crippled to walk and given scientists new weapons for attacking disease. Help open new frontiers in the search for causes, cures and preventatives of human tragedies. Support the NEW MARCH OF DIMES.

PEPTONE
by Deedee & Alice

It had to happen. A smashing new group that identifies itself with Op art and produces an altogether unique sound. Who? That's right — Who. This fabulous group from England has an exciting approach to pop music, which is typified in their current hit, "My Generation."

The lead singer of The Who is Roger Daltrey, whose personal tastes run to rhythm and blues singers. Drummer boy Keith Moon gives the group an added special touch of originality with a kind of drumming that's all his own. Sometimes he twirls the drumsticks about and then brings them down onto the drums. He usually sports a shirt which is designed in Op art. As for the idea of Op art itself, that was initiated into the group by Peter Townsend, the lead guitarist, who used to be a student of modern art. He still carries an interest in the subject. John Entwistle is on bass guitar, and he's the one with all the military medals on his shirts and coats. He doesn't claim to be a war hero, but you have to admit that those medals are something unique. But then, so is the whole group.

The Who has several qualities that can only spell out success. Their personal tastes, their dress, and their songs all reflect the feelings of today's youth. You might say that they are within the spirit of the times. At any rate, you can be sure you'll be hearing a lot more about them. It looks like England scores again.

The Adventures of Torch McCarthy and Her Accomplish, Star Chapter 5

By now you might have guessed that Torch McCarthy and Star are quite determined to go to England. Their only problem is how. But leave it to Torch and her "brilliant ideas" to figure out the situation.

With their financial status being almost non-existent, they had to resort to Torch's brilliant ideas. As you remember, the girls were at work on a... well... sort of contraption that would enable them to get to England on the least amount of money. Their plan was to attach two side cars onto a Honda. One side car was to be used as a storage place for their Beatle things, since they couldn't bear the thought of parting with all the records, magazines, newspapers, and scrapbooks that they had accumulated. The other side car was the length of a human body so that one girl could sleep while the other drove on.

Now, any ordinary girls would have just gotten a job and saved the money to jet out to the Continent and England. But as you might have noticed, Torch and Star are no ordinary girls. So away they hammered at their... uh... contraption.

Suddenly Torch stopped hammering and looked alarmingly at Star.

"What's up, Torch?" Star wanted to know.

"I think we have a problem," (which wasn't unusual), she answered.

"Yet What's the problem?" Star also wanted to know.

Torch began to explain how their contraption could get them to New York with no problem, but that was as far as they could go, on account of a little bit of water between New York and England. Like a whole ocean. The Atlantic Ocean to be exact. But even as she was talking, a new brilliant idea hit upon her.

"Why not!" she cried. "Who says our Honda can't go over the ocean!" Torch's green eyes sparkled at her new idea.

What was Torch's latest brilliant idea? Will it help or hinder the girls in their attempt to get to England? Watch for next week's story to find out.

Claremont Artist Wins Acclaim

"Child and Chrysanthemums," by Claremont artist Maril Delaney received the most votes by visitors to the recent Scripps College faculty art exhibit in the main lobby of Investors Savings and Loan at Lake and Green streets in Pasadena. According to Verne Orr, president, the painting has been purchased by Investors and will remain on exhibit. "We will eventually donate the painting to a charitable institution," Orr said.

Bank of America Economists Predict Rise

California's rate of economic growth, which had slowed down noticeably during the past couple of years, should pick up again slightly in 1966, according to Bank of America economists.

At the same time, the rest of the nation should continue its five-year-old economic expansion, with relatively stable prices despite the sharp increase in federal defense spending in connection with Viet Nam, the bank predicted in its 1966 "Economic Outlook" published this week by the economic research department.

Personal income in California should rise about 6.2 per cent above the 1965 level and should total more than $63 billion in 1966. The rate of income growth for 1965 is currently estimated at 5.9 per cent.

Part of the improving situation will reflect a modest rise in aerospace-electronics employment in the state during 1966, according to the bank's economists. This industry, which has provided much of California's "boom" a few years back, went into employment decline during the past couple of years, but these declining trends were reversed during 1965.

The military build-up in Viet Nam is not expected to provide substantial stimulus to the state's aerospace-electronics industries, but it should provide a boost to other sectors of the California economy, such as transportation and wholesaling, shipyards, and in areas around training bases. Passage of the pay increase for military personnel and federal civilian employees should also aid the rise in state incomes.

All of this will provide a basis for continued growth in a wide variety of trade and service industries, the Bank of America report states. In addition, local and state government employment increase to meet the rising demands for educational, medical and related services, also may be expected. Only in the construction field, the report predicts, will employment likely decline below year-ago levels.

Retail sales in the state also should push to new record levels, and there is a possibility of some further moderate reductions in unemployment in California. Agricultural activity in 1966 should continue to provide a stimulant to the state economy, Bank of America predicted. However, it said, further mechanization spurred on by recent sharp increases in labor costs, is expected to accelerate the long term downward trend in total California agricultural employment.

For the nation as a whole, the bank report predicted that next year's expansionary forces should take on a slightly different pattern than in the past year, with the most substantial change being an increase in federal spending due to the conflict in Viet Nam.

The bank economists were optimistic about the chances of inflationary forces being contained despite a declining unemployment rate and higher utilization rate of the nation's productive resources than at any time since mid-1957.

"The approach to a full employment economy need not necessarily result in sharply rising prices," the report states. It further points out that continued strong growth in the labor force and the boost to productive capacity that will stem from new plant facilities coming into line in 1966 should more than meet the growth in demand.

Nationally, also, the bank economists predict a consumer spending to rise at a slightly slower pace than in 1965 due to a leveling off in durable goods expenditures, auto sales to be only slightly less than in 1965, and the balance of payments deficit next year to be close to this year's total, unless overseas lending and investment restraints become more stringent, or the foreign trade surplus turns out to be larger than now anticipated, causing a smaller overall deficit.

Consumer installment credit outstanding in 1966, it says, is likely to increase by about $5.4 billion, compared to the record $8 billion rise in 1965.

Pvt. Neil D. Barry Graduates From Marine Training
 Marine Private Neil D. Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil J. Barry of 475 Mt. Wilson Trail, Sierra Madre, Calif., was graduated December 20, from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, Calif.

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran noncommissioned officer drill instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection, as well as receiving instruction in military drill, history and traditions of the Marine Corps, and other academic subjects.

He has been assigned to Camp Lejeune, N.C. for four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field.

Well Baby Clinic Meets In Parkhouse January 26

Several appointments are still open for mothers who wish to bring their young children to the Los Angeles County Health Department's "Well Baby Clinic" which is held in the Sierra Madre Memorial Park Clubhouse at 240 W. Sierra Madre Boulevard in Sierra Madre.

Dr. Chester C. Burski, District Health Officer, who made the announcement, stated that the clinic is held on the fourth Wednesday of each month from 12:30 to 3 p.m. This begins January 26.

The clinic is open to those parents whose children do not receive such service from a private physician. Children under one year of age are admitted to the clinic and usually receive care until they reach the age of two years.

Each child is examined by the pediatrician assisted by public health nurse, Hughletta Bryant. Although no treatment is given, immunization against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, polio, and smallpox are available for those infants who have not been afforded such protection.

The clinic is designed to give mothers an opportunity to consult with a pediatrician on such matters as child development, health habits and parent-child relationships.

Politics... 1966

With the turn of the calendar to the New Year, the cyclical process again inexorably is turning the Washington mind to thoughts of the fall elections eleven months hence. The question before the House—and the Senate—is whether the Republicans will come back to life after the 1964 nightmare, or whether Lyndon Johnson once again will parlay his unprecedented political skill into impressive Democratic success at the polls.

From this day until next November 8, virtually every move of the executive, and legislative branches of the federal government will be planned, executed and analyzed for its ultimate impact on the voters.

The Republicans turn into the new year armed with warnings from many of their own leaders that this year's Congressional, Senatorial and gubernatorial elections add up to a fight for survival. Political prophets warn they must make substantial gains in the House, where their band now numbers only 141, or face three political probabilities in 1968:

1. Their presidential nomination will be greatly reduced in value;
2. LBJ, armed with another public mandate to develop the Great Society, will continue to dominate the field of political issues.
3. Campaign contributions will be harder and harder to obtain as traditional sources of political money swing over to the winning side, where federal favors are.

In the Senatorial elections, the GOP faces a major challenge in its hopes of fattening its present contingent of 32. Fourteen of its members face the voters in 1966, and the President reportedly has marked five of them on his "must" list for extinction: Sens. Tower of Texas, Curtis of Nebraska, Simpson of Wyoming, Miller of Iowa and Mundt of South Dakota. In addition, the Democrats have hopes of picking up the seats of Saltonstall of Massachusetts (if he retires), Allott of Colorado, and even Thurmond of South Carolina.

Thurston Morton, Chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, claims his party will hang onto all 14 contested seats and even score "modest" gains. His chief hopes: supplanting Oregon's retiring Maurice Neuberger with Mark Hatfield, and Illinois' veteran Paul Douglas with Charles Percy.

Highest Republican hopes are for an impressive increase in their present ranks of 17 Governors, but these races generally will not be determined on the national issues facing House and Senate contenders.

The whole scope of the Great Society and its ballooning costs, the administration of the war on poverty, the progress of the war in Viet Nam, the threat of war-borne inflation, reapportionment, the 14-b and a host of other incendiary issues promise to make the 1966 political scene a fireworks spectacular for the men who will ride or fall with both great parties.

All Pay - No Work

Sargent Shriver, mastermind of the Great Society's peace and poverty programs, has had another idea. Income tax in reverse or, as he describes it, "negative income tax."

It is, at admitted minimum estimate, a $4 billion idea. Basically, it would provide families earning less than the minimum taxable income with 14 per cent of the difference between their actual income and that taxable figure. For example, a family of four with no income would receive $420, or 14 per cent of $3,000.

That is the rock bottom phase of the plan. At the higher end the total estimated cost to the taxpayers rises to something like $24 billion, with a middle alternative of $12 billion. These latter plans are for all practical purposes outright doles, intended to bring every family's income up to or beyond the federal "poverty" figure of $3,000 annual income.

What this program would do to individual initiative can hardly be calculated. In many cases, of course, it would be justified. But the history of such governmental largesse makes it seem clear that Mr. Shriver is pounding another nail in the coffin of a basic American way of life, adding another stone to the Arc de Triomphe of the Great Socialism.

Another Indian Giver

"Indian giver" is a term of derision long favored by youngsters. It has to do with someone who gives you something—and then demands it back.

Nowadays, Indian giving can be accurately used to describe the tax system.

We have had a modest reduction in federal income taxes. The action was greeted with an immense amount of publicity and was described as a shot in the arm for the economy. And, it is true, just about everyone has had a little more take-home pay to spend.

But this happy situation is soon to end—either entirely or in a large part—for most people. The reason: In 1966, a worker with an income of $6,600 or more will pay $277 in social security taxes—$103 more than the $174 he paid in 1965. The employer's contribution will go up by an identical amount.

And this won't be the end. More increases will go into effect periodically. By 1987, the $6,600 a year worker will pay $373, as will his employer. And self-employed people will then pay $515. Tax reductions are fine. But they don't mean a thing when tax increases take all or most of the money right back.

Coin Collecting, New Style

In our continuing efforts to keep our readers abreast of the federal government's use of their tax dollars, we come up with the following new revelation.

The recently created National Endowment for the Arts issued a call to various potential beneficiaries to discuss the procedures for seeking federal financial aid. Probably the most ironically logical group to be invited was the Washington Numismatic Society, no mean coin collectors by avocation. Other groups included the Friday Morning Music Club Foundation, the Washington Area Square Dance Cooperative and the Potomac China Painting Teachers Association.

An unofficial "Think" publication, "Factors Operative in a Post-Arms Control Situation" (dated April, 1965) sets forth an indication of Foggy Bottom's predictions for 1965 and 1966.

Many critics have concluded that complete confidence in the fulfillment of these factors represents the foundation of U.S. State Department policy in the fields of unilateral disarmament and foreign affairs: Predictions for 1965:

1. "Southeast Asia (Viet Nam) situation improves."
2. "Bilateral U.S. - USSR agreement for destruction of obsolete bomber aircraft."
3. "French policies reoriented toward United States, United Kingdom and NATO."

4. "Communist China admitted to United Nations."
5. "U.S. fights punitive limited war vs. North Viet Nam and Communist China. Includes destruction of nuclear plants."

6. "USSR abrogates (nullifies) USSR-China mutual defense treaty."
7. "Communist Chinese government leaders commit suicide."

It would appear slightly more than obvious that the "pigeons" roosting in State are badly in need of a new crystal ball gazer.

Let's take a quick peek at events (predictions) as scheduled for 1966:

1. "Destruction of (our) bombers completed."
2. "USSR proposes nuclear-free zone in Central Europe."

3. "Nuclear-free zone treaty signed."
4. "Large-scale revolution in Cuba - Guavara government overthrown."

5. "Incident at U.S. Naval War College involving ASW problem."
6. "Security leak from USSR mission at U.S. Pacom."

Predictions 5 and 6 kinda make a fellow wonder—or do they? It might appear to some that Foggy Bottom's crystal ball is suffering from an acute rash of extra-sensory perception. An individual addicted to spells of rational thinking might even suspect a bit of skulduggery for the purpose of implementing as well as expediting unsound State Department policy!

According to further "Think" predictions, the Indonesian government will adopt a conciliatory foreign relations policy in 1966. East-West tensions will reduce, and world-wide international relations will improve in general through the next decade. By 1975, according to our disarmament planners, the lion will lie down with the lamb!

It is interesting to note, however, that in the last column of the chronology of events, headed 1976, we find the words: "Completion of execution..."

"God give us men! A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;

Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;

Men who possess opinions and a will;

Men who have honor—who will not lie;

Men who can stand before a demagogue And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;

Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog In public duty and in private thinking;

For while the rabble, with their little deeds, Mingle in selfish strife, lo! Freedom weeps.

Wrong rules the land, and Waiting Justice Sleeps!

The Sierra Madre float, "Freedom From Terror," designed by Alfred J. Dewey, wins a prize in Tournament of Roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Blodgett celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with another marriage ceremony, held at their home at 685 W. Alegria, in the presence of three children and six grandchildren. Preceding the ceremony a turkey dinner and wedding cake was served. Then children and grandchildren lighted candles from the two representing the couple, each candle getting smaller in size according to the bearer's age.

"Topsy," the celebrated cat belonging to Mrs. Coats of 240 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., is mourned by many friends, after 17 years of life and busy maternity: she is credited with having over 75 kittens.

You and Your Neighbor

After the judges of the Hastings Ranch Christmas Decorations Contest had their dinner at El Dorado, they and members of the Association went to the Frank C. Crowhursts, at 1585 Riviera for a party, which all enjoyed. Then on Christmas Day there was a big double celebration at this home, for Nancy, youngest of the Crowhurst children (Bill and Suesee are the others) celebrated her fifth birthday this day. Among the family present for the double big day were: Mrs. Crowhurst's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Henrie, of Arcadia, Frank's brother, Peter Crowhurst, his aunt and uncle, the Leonard Gregersens of Oceanside, and cousin from North-Wallingford from North-western, with his family from Claremont. Under-standable that the Crowhursts chose to plan New Years for their home in Palm Desert to recuperate!

Buena Park was the scene for holiday celebration for the G. G. Hays of 252 Mariposa; they visited Mr. Hays' father, O. G. Hays there.

ATTEND CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

Shakespeare Club Section Meeting

"Anthony and Cleopatra" will command the attention to the Shakespeare department of the Shakespeare Club on Friday, January 7, in Stratford House when members will meet at 11:30 a.m. for dessert and coffee. At 12:15 p.m. Miss Elisabeth Flint will lead the reading and study of the play, assisted by Mrs. A. C. Allig, department director.

Hostesses for the day are Mrs. N. Seymour Dasher and Miss Helen Louise Taylor.

Wild turkeys in flight have been known to keep up with a car traveling 50 miles an hour.

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

PROBABLY COMING DOWN WITH SOMETHING!

Even a frown can worry Mother. And when he has a fever—she always fears the worst!

Did you know, Mother, that more children fall victim to spiritual neglect than any of the crippling diseases we dread? It has wrecked the fond hopes and bold dreams of hundreds of thousands of parents.

Yet it isn't a disease, at all! It is a HESITATION; hesitating to start our child in Church School, hesitating to go with him and worship God, hesitating to discuss at home the need for moral and religious foundation for the whole family.

Face it today! Do something about it next Sunday! Choose YOUR church. And make it YOUR church. And through a lifetime of worship and faith it can be for your child... HIS church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
